

Fjalakötturinn

Award winning restaurant

Fjalakötturinn restaurant, so conveniently located in the heart of the old city centre, provides hungry passers-by with two options, the Uppsaliir Café and the Fjalakötturinn Restaurant. In Uppsaliir's comfortable atmosphere, in the oldest part of the building, filled with character, visitors can enjoy quality Lavazza coffee along with light dishes or delicious cakes and waffles. Every month, Uppsaliir's walls are a venue for different art exhibitions. To best enjoy the long summer days, Uppsaliir also has an outdoor terrace, ideal for sipping a cool drink out in the glowing sunlight.

Fjalakötturinn restaurant offers delicious meals with an emphasis on our new Nordic cuisine. For lunch, visitors can enjoy a light lunch menu with today's special for a modest price while for dinner the restaurant offers its a la carte menu with fish, meat and vegetable dishes. Fjalakötturinn is proud to have received the Wine Spectator Award for its great wine selection. The impressive and affordable wine list assists diners in selecting the right wine to accompany the courses on the menu. For groups up to 18 people, the lovely Forsetastofa in the Uppsaliir building is an ideal choice for private parties or meetings.
